

HERALD TRIBUNE

How America's secret agents operate behind the Iron Curtain

How do we plant agents in Red countries, and just how dangerous is their work? What victories have they won for us in the cold war? Here's the whole story of our supersecret Central Intelligence Agency — how it gets its information, trains its agents and outwits the Reds. Read The Mysterious Doings of CIA, by Richard and Gladys Harkness.